ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR OFFICE.

We are authorized to announce
EZRA J. MILLER
 As a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce
W. W. HARDWICK

A candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce
J. P. STEVENS,

Or Horton, as a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce
J. DENHAM HOCKER
 As a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce
D. H. GODDYE

As a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

To the Voters of Ohio County:
 I am a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, and I call upon you to vote for me. The Democratic party should be the nominee, we will make a vigorous canvass to see every voter. Respectfully, G. J. LEONARD.

The Democratic Congressional District Committee for this District will meet at Elizabethtown on Wednesday next.

TON Young, colored, is in jail at Oxford, charged with the murder of his master, Mr. James P. Miller in his present apartment. Can it be that he is at heart still a Protectionist and is only misrepresenting in sheet after foolish Democratic language? At present it looks very much that way.

It is a fact that it is only his right that determines what rights that animates Mr. James P. Miller in his present aspirations? Can it be that he is at heart still a Protectionist and is only misrepresenting in sheet after foolish Democratic language? At present it looks very much that way.

C. M. BARNETT, of the Revenue service, Owendale, spent Monday here. The Coloclo took no part in the cage-walk at the court house, they will find an audience who will listen to their tale of woe with a deal more sympathy than will give them a deal more credit that the audience they will have.

In the gentlemen who a few weeks ago were kicking with so much spirit against the "blind tigers" in Hartford, will call at No. 2 on the ground floor at the court house, they will find an audience who will no doubt stand aloof from the losing journey into which the two red gentlemen have precipitated themselves.

The gentlemen who a few weeks ago were kicking with so much spirit against the "blind tigers" in Hartford, will call at No. 2 on the ground floor at the court house, they will find an audience who will listen to their tale of woe with a deal more sympathy than will give them a deal more credit that the audience they will have.

To A CURIOSITY editor who some weeks ago inquired, or attempted to raise, such a hullabaloo over the alleged existence of "blind tigers" in this community, we suggest that there are two good men at the court house now, one of whom has his complaint and proceed therein to a way to be effective. Will he kindly call on them and communicate?

Our fellow citizens attending Circuit Court are invited to make themselves at home in the HERALD where our friends are always welcome. If you are, as we are, a subscriber to your county paper, we would be glad to have you call and renew your allegiance. If you are not a subscriber, we invite you to call and subscribe.

URING last year there passed out of the River Ohio 1,000,000 cords of timber, 375,000,000 logs, which produced 150,000,000 feet of lumber worth $2,500,000. Of this number, 310,000 cords, or 150,000,000 logs, came from Evansville and 45,000 cords from W. H. Morris. This enormous business by far above our water courses, how much more argument is necessary to establish that the time has come when the Free Trade Party had given up their allegiance to the Protectionist idea. They were reminded of the time when many a bold soul, who was bringing in his seat belt, the stately colored Republican, had urged us with his expounding of the principles of Protection, declaring it to be the truth and the only hope of the country.

Mr. Welding declared that many of the men now in the Third Party are from the Convention, and, as far as I can understand, that particularly true of that party's candidate for Clerk. It is noticeable that under all this Mr. Miller is as silent as the grave, and that he is at heart a free trader and thereby in line with the party whose support he seeks, or a rank Protectionist, and, as far as I can understand, he has avowed himself.

The people who votes Mr. Miller sollicits, as well as his former political brethren—including Mr. Thorne Carter—who formerly had some respect for him, desire to know a third time that the project and Mr. Miller will get nothing but the respect of his unaccountable and cowardly conduct.

LET US HAVE BLOODED STOCK.

John P. Foster, who lives on his beautiful farm just north of Hartford, is one of those hunting farmers who like to hunt, but is opposed by many earnest men who regard his opposition in New York as fatal to his election. He can't be elected, but he may be nominated President. We hope he may be nominated and we hope Kentucky may assist in his nomination.

The Courier Journal must sometimes take water. It made a good fight against the new Constitution and a good one against the newspaper which he founded.

It has been in the sprit of the former only when confronted with overwhelming odds. It would as well give up the losing fight again as the new one. We hope the President, any and all influences to the contrary notwithstanding. Yesterday's pronouncements announced the withdrawal of most of his antagonists, and the month will see them all put to rout.

A few weeks ago Mr. Tom. Duffie, editor of the Courier, paid his respects to the newspaper which he founded.

It has since transpired that the Alliance organ of Evansville having declined to support Mr. Miller, he has turned his back on his concern and hires an editor to run it in the interest of T. Pettit Esq., Mr. Pettit should remember that he is not the only man who has sold to Mr. Harris for the head of the Kentuckian Club is the best in the finest hotel in the State. He is four years old and when in order weighs 600 pounds. Of course stock which brings money, and it costs less to buy than to raise, and that is why it does our common scrub.

When will the mass of our farmers awake to the extreme importance of better blood in their stock?

ABERVILLE, KY.

May 22, 1892.—The winter spring of 1891-92 was a bad one, but politics is sizzling and smoldering, and while "there is no room for the dead," the political atmosphere is electric. There is plenty of material for thought of the woman who likes to know what is going on.

Mr. T. Pettit, a well known attorney, has sold to Mr. E. M. Ellis. Although wholly unarmed, he was a thorn in the flesh of the Kentuckian Club.

With all the mass of our farmers awake to the extreme importance of better blood in their stock?

WE WANT NO SALOONS.

An all-day effort is being made to secure the repeal of our Prohibition law.

There is little danger of such a bill being passed by the Legislature who have heretofore gone on record as opposing the repeal of our local prohibitory laws.

It is a fact that the members of the various local prohibitory laws, as they realize the uncertainty, if not impossibility of any further legislation, are in a quandary.

While the public press has had comparatively little to say in regard to our probable success, the public voice has much thought being given to the probable effect of the proposed legislation which overrules that field.

RESOLUTIONS

Late But Good.

Resolved:

I'll break away from those sharks
who have been doing me on Dry Goods,
Notions, Clothing, &c., the past year.

I'll pay cash and buy cheaper, and know just where I stand. Don't believe I had half the things charged on that last bill.

I'll try Fair Bros. & Co. for a while.
They say they are great "fellers" to trade with.

I'll go where they treat anybody as if they didn't own 'em, anyway.

I'll try Fair Bros. & Co., sure. I saw in their place elegant Dress Goods,
Millinery, Clothing, &c., the other day.

I'll take my Wool, Ginseng &c. Feathers to them. They pay the top prices.
